Q Did he say he was representing Mrs. Hall?

A Yes, sir.

Q What did he say to you about whether you could see Mrs. Hall?

A He advised me, being Mrs. Hall's counsellor at law, that it was advisable at that time to see her.

Q Did you want to see her?

A I told him I would like to see her very much.

Q Did he say anything to you about putting you in a home if you talked too much?

A He didn't say if I talked too much.

Q What did he say?

A He told me Mrs. Hall was very much concerned about my welfare and she had spoken the matter over with him, and she extended her heartfelt sympathy to me, and she wanted to know if I would care to get away from all this unpleasant publicity, and if I cared to she would be able to get me in a place where I would be un-annoyed.

Q There was nothing said about putting you in a home against your will?

A No.

Q It was simply an expression on her part that she thought that publicity was unpleasant and she would get a place for you if you wanted to go away?

A Yes.

Q But
